Item 4: Other Business Activities

The IAR is engaged in the following non-investment-related business activities:

Eric Adam Stiba is a Financial Advisor. From time to time, consultants with the contract department. He may receive separate, yet typical, compensation for this business. Eric Adam Stiba has a financial industry-affiliated business as a licensed insurance agent. From time to time, he will offer clients advice or products from this activity.

This practice represents a conflict of interest because it gives an incentive to recommend products and services based on the commissions or fees received rather than on the client's needs. This conflict is mitigated by disclosures, procedures, and the firm's Fiduciary obligation to place the best interest of the client first, and the clients are not required to purchase any products or services.

Clients always have the right to choose to decide whether to act upon the recommendations of the firm. The client always has the right to affect the recommendations through the professional of their choosing.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Eric Adam Stiba may receive cash and non-cash compensation from certain third-party product sponsors as permitted by industry rules. For example, product sponsors and other companies may reimburse IAR up to 100% of the cost of due diligence, training, and education/joint marketing meetings. In addition, sales by IARs may qualify them for additional compensation, including support for their business activities, attendance at seminars, and entertainment.

Eric Adam Stiba will also receive compensation from third-party investment advisors for referring client accounts to the third party for account management. The third-party will pay the IAR a solicitation fee for the referral. The IAR may also serve as the registered representative of record on the assets managed by the third-party investment advisor. When this is the case, the IAR will receive normal and customary compensation (e.g., commissions, 12b-1 fees, trails) for the purchase of the investments. This compensation is in addition to the referral fee paid by the third-party advisor.

Eric Adam Stiba has a financial industry affiliated business as an insurance agent. These practices represent conflicts of interest because they give the IAR an incentive to recommend products based on the commission amount received. This conflict is mitigated by disclosures, procedures, and the firm's Fiduciary obligation to place the client's interest first and clients are not required to purchase any products. Clients have the option to purchase these products through another insurance agent of their choosing.

Item 6: Supervision

We have adopted a system of compliance and supervision we believe is reasonably designed to oversee the activities of our Advisors in accordance with applicable law. We assign supervisors to oversee the activities of our Advisors conducted throughout our company. The designated supervisor of an Advisor may vary from time to time.
