Registered Financial Consultant (RFC)

RFC is a professional designation awarded by the International Association of Registered Financial Consultants ("IARFC") to those advisors who can meet high education standards, experience, and integrity. Financial Advisors must have a minimum of four years of experience as a full-time practitioner in the field of financial planning/services. They must hold a baccalaureate or graduate degrees in financial planning services or hold one of the following professional designations; AAMS, CFA, CFP, ChFC, CLU, CPA, EA, or JD. If they do not, the applicant must complete a CFP course at an accredited institution or IARFC approved coursework and pass a written exam. This designation requires 40 hours of continuing education every year, of which 2 hours must be business ethics every 2 years. Applicant must meet all local licensing requirements: securities, life and health insurance, or an applicant who is a fee-only planner and is not licensed must submit information on his/her RIA or ARIA affiliation. The applicant must have a sound record of business integrity with no suspension or revocation of any profession licenses and must subscribe and adhere to the RFC Code of Ethics.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

Ernest A. Stiba Jr. does not have a disciplinary history. Client and prospective clients are encouraged to view the registration records for REGISTERED REP through the SEC's Investment Advisor Public Disclosure (IAPD) website at www.advisorinfo.sec.gov or FINRA's Broker Check database at www.finra.org/brokercheck.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

The IAR is engaged in the following non-investment-related business activities:

Ernest A. Stiba Jr. is a Financial Advisor. From time to time, consultants with the contract department. He may receive separate, yet typical, compensation for this business. Ernest A. Stiba Jr. has a financial industry affiliated business as a licensed insurance agent. From time to time, he will offer clients advice or products from this activity.

This practice represents a conflict of interest because it gives an incentive to recommend products and services based on the commissions or fees received rather than on the client's needs. This conflict is mitigated by disclosures, procedures, and the firm's Fiduciary obligation to place the best interest of the client first, and the clients are not required to purchase any products or services.

Clients always have the right to choose to decide whether to act upon the recommendations of the firm. The client always has the right to affect the recommendations through the professional of their choosing.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Ernest A. Stiba Jr. may receive cash and non-cash compensation from certain third-party product sponsors as permitted by industry rules. For example, product sponsors and other companies may reimburse IAR up to 100% of the cost of due diligence, training, and education/joint marketing meetings. In addition, sales by IARs may qualify them for additional compensation, including support for their business activities, attendance at seminars, and entertainment.

Ernest A. Stiba Jr. will also receive compensation from third-party investment advisors for referring client accounts to the third party for account management. The third-party will pay the IAR a solicitation fee for the referral. The IAR may also serve as the registered representative of record on the assets managed by the third-party investment advisor. When this is the case, the IAR will receive normal and customary compensation (e.g., commissions, 12b-1 fees, trails) for the purchase of the investments. This compensation is in addition to the referral fee paid by the third-party advisor.

Ernest A. Stiba Jr. has a financial industry affiliated business as an insurance agent. These practices represent conflicts of interest because it gives the IAR an incentive to recommend products based on the commission amount received. This conflict is mitigated by disclosures, procedures, and the firm's Fiduciary obligation to place the client's interest first and clients are not required to purchase any products. Clients have the option to purchase these products through another insurance agent of their choosing.
